TERMS & CONDITIONS

TO PURCHASE A SECOND HAND AMUSEMENT RIDE

FABBRI RIDES™ LTD - www.fabbrirides.com

These Terms & Conditions of Sale and Services could be modified at any time without notice

- General The market of used amusement rides represents a large and interesting worldwide market. The number of transactions of used rides is about 20 times bigger compared to the number of transactions related to new attractions. Buyers are interested in evaluating a suitable used amusement ride available in the market with a professional agent to secure contracts, payments and delivery on the base of international business procedures.
- State of use of the Amusement Rides Fabbri Rides manages a data base of used amusement rides that provides a preliminary opinion about the status of these attractions on the base of Seller preliminary informations:
- VERY GOOD: means that the used amusement ride is ready to be operated immediately and that its illumination and/or accessories are very well maintained
 - GOOD: means that the used amusement ride is ready to be operated immediately and that its illumination and/or accessories are maintained in average status
 - MEDIUM: means that the used amusement ride required some maintenance before using in operations, parts of the illuminations could be not in working conditions
 - LOW: means that the used amusement ride required a refurbishment before using in operations, including repairs to drive system and illumination
- Maintenance & Refurbishment
- Maintenance: means that the drive system and all main mechanisms related to installation, operation and disassembling are operating but it is advisable to adjust, repair and update components like: electrical plugs, components of electrical panel, replace pins or screws, replace worn out components as those related to passengers restrain system and general repair to painted structure. Maintenance is generally a simple activity that could be also performed by the Buyer in his country with local technicians
 - Refurbishment: means that drive system and all main mechanism related to installation, operation and disassembling could not be in perfect operational conditions and it is advisable to partially or completely disassemble the used amusement ride, check the steel structure, check and update (if necessary) all drive and electrical system, replace part or all electrical wiring, check and replace (if necessary) passenger's restrain system, reinstall and test the ride after all this job. Refurbishment is a special activity that should be made by professional companies with some experience in field of amusement rides.
 - Re-Painting of Used Ride: Re-painting of a Used Ride is an extraordinary activity mostly performed during a refurbishment process; as a matter of fact in order to re-paint the structure it is sometime necessary to completely or partially disassemble the ride. Based on the kind of attraction the disassembling / assembling process could be very expensive, much more than the pure cost of re-painting.
